This Registration Policy sets forth the terms and conditions, which govern .gal domain name registrations. In this Registration Policy:

- a. “Registrant”, “You” and “Your” refers to the individual or entity which applies for or wishes to register a .gal domain name.
- b. “Registry Operator”, “We”, “Us” and “Our” refers to the Asociación Puntogal, as entity responsible for operating the .gal Top Level Domain, regardless of whether acting directly or through an authorised agent.
- c. “ICANN” means the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers

1. Acceptance of this Registration Policy

- 1.1 By applying to register a .gal domain name, or by asking to maintain or renew Your domain name, You agree to be legally bound by:
 - a. This Registration Policy set forth by the Registry Operator of the .gal TLD, as amended from time to time;
 - b. The Registration Agreement provided by the sponsoring registrar through which you applied for a .gal domain name; and
 - c. Any other policies mandated by ICANN from time to time.
- 1.2 You hereby represent and warrant to Us that the statements that you made in Your Registration Agreement with the registrar sponsoring Your .gal domain name are complete and accurate.
- 1.3 You agree and acknowledge that it is Your sole responsibility to determine whether Your .gal domain name registration and use complies with this Registration Policy.
- 1.4 Your .gal domain name shall be in accordance with the syntax norms established by ICANN and by Us, and shall not consist of any of the reserved names established by Us. You acknowledge that a domain name registered against the syntax norms, the reserved names, or this Registration Policy may be cancelled without a refund. We will not be liable in any case for such cancellation.

- 1.5 We cannot guarantee that You will obtain a desired domain name, even if an inquiry indicates that such domain name is available at the time of Your application.
- 1.6 You acknowledge and agree that registration of Your chosen .gal domain name does not confer immunity from objection to the registration or use of the domain name, as set forth in Clause 5 below.

2. Eligibility Requirements

- 2.1 Nexus with the .gal community. To register and renew a .gal domain name you must be an individual or legal entity with a nexus to the .gal community at the time of registration and thereafter.

Registrations under the .gal TLD are restricted to those fulfilling these two requirements:

- a) bona-fide membership of the Galician linguistic and cultural community on the Internet. The community consists of those who use (or commit to use) the Galician language for their online communications, and/or promote the different aspects of Galician culture online, and/or intend to specifically address their online communications and services to that community.
- b) subject to the further requirement that the registrant's actions in the Galician linguistic and cultural community, as well as the registrant's use of the registered domain name, must be:
 - i. generally accepted as legitimate; and
 - ii. beneficial to the cause and the values of the Galician linguistic and cultural community; and
 - iii. commensurate with the role and importance of the registered domain name; and
 - iv. in good faith at the time of registration and thereafter.

Registrants are required to state their intended use of the registered domain name. A false statement of intended use is an indication of bad faith and can be the basis for the suspension of the domain name.

Upon registration and during all the life of the .gal domain name You must be able to demonstrate either of the aforementioned fields is applicable to You. Community nexus is subject to post-validation by way of an extensive compliance program based on the same criteria that form the basis of the TLD.

3. Use of Your .gal domain name

You, Registrant, agree that:

- a. You are fully responsible for the registration and use of the .gal registered domain name. If You allow another person to use your .gal domain name, You may be held liable for wrongful use of your domain name (i.e. the domain name for which You are the Registrant) by the third party.
- b. You will use the .gal domain name in a way that is:
 - i. generally accepted as legitimate; and
 - ii. beneficial to the cause and the values of the Galician community; and
 - iii. commensurate to the role and importance of the domain, according to the judgement that an average user would reasonably make in the context of that domain name; and
 - iv. based on good faith at registration and thereafter.

Names which do not meet these requirements include, among others, those which or whose use may, at the Registry Operator's discretion:

- * Mislead or deceive the public, for instance as to the geographical place they refer to or the official nature of its origin; or
 - * Take unfair advantage of the primary meaning or repute attributed by the public to the selected name; or
 - * Hamper the potential content, from a public interest perspective, for the domain name in question, keeping in mind the primary meaning of the name (i.e. whether it is descriptive or generic in nature) and/or the repute attributed by the relevant public to such name.
- d. You will not use Your .gal domain name in violation of any rights of third-parties, including but not limited to third-party's intellectual property rights in the broadest sense.
 - e. You will not use Your .gal domain name to offer third level domain name registrations to independent third parties as a commercial registry type service.
